VISITING NURSE | HOSPICE ATLANTA ANNOUNCES FOUR NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Four leaders from Atlanta's government, business and nonprofit communities have joined the Visiting Nurse | Hospice Atlanta board of directors. They are: Luz Borrero, Deputy Chief Operating Officer, Office of the Mayor; Roosevelt Giles, Founder, Innovative Management Solutions Group; Annita Stokes Thomas, Owner, The Thomas Center, provider of leadership development and multicultural awareness seminars; and Michelle Gandy, Community Volunteer.

Visiting Nurse | Hospice Atlanta was founded in 1948. It is a community-based organization dedicated to delivering compassionate, innovative and cost-effective home health and end-of-life care to residents of metro Atlanta. The organization is Georgia's largest nonprofit home healthcare and hospice provider. According to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Visiting Nurse | Hospice Atlanta has one of the lowest patient re-hospitalization rates in Georgia, a key indicator of quality.
